Notice Concerning the Establishment of Overseas Representative Office

SOHGO SECURITY SERVICES CO., LTD. (the Company) announces the establishment of a representative office in the Republic of the Philippines.

1. Purpose and Background

Our basic policy for overseas expansion is to work to meet the security demand of Japanese companies that are developing operations overseas. As part of our overseas expansion efforts, we have established subsidiaries in Thailand, Vietnam, China, Malaysia, Indonesia, and India. Besides these subsidiaries, we have also established representative offices in Singapore and Korea.

Security demand is expected to rise overseas following the increase in the number of Japanese companies looking to expand into the fast-growing Asian region. Accordingly, expanding and globalizing our service systems has become more important than ever before.

The Republic of the Philippines is expected to continue to experience substantial economic development. For this reason, the Company decided to establish a representative office in this country. By researching local economic and market conditions and collecting information, the Company will strengthen coordination with Japanese companies going forward.
